

MAR ROSSO 2

An underwater photograph showing a rocky seabed with various fish swimming in clear, shallow water. The scene is brightly lit, with sunlight filtering through the water, creating shimmering patterns on the rocks and fish. The fish are of various species and sizes, some appearing to be schooling. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.

